“It’s been a challenge to keep pace with the technological advances in gaming and entertainment, and we believe we’ve been able to create a game that provides a rich and authentic football experience,” said Sam Riches, vice president of Global Product Development at EA Sports. “HyperMotion Technology was inspired by the data-driven research and testing of the physical movements of the world’s best football players. Now, you can truly experience how they move in a match. We wanted to capture the extreme physical demands of playing the game and they don’t come along every day. We’re proud to share this amazing technology with the FIFA community and now football fans worldwide.” In Fifa 22 Activation Code, players are exposed to intense on-ball duels, a wide variety of ways to earn and lose the ball, highlight-reel aerial duels and stunning free kicks, along with an array of relentless attacks. You’ll experience every move in full 360 degrees, the same way the real-life players do in a high-intensity match. Whether you’re choosing to play the game in your home, on a television screen, or on a dedicated digital platform, the authentic motion capture of the best footballers in the world ensures that your virtual experience matches that of a real player. In addition, the player models are carefully tuned to each individual player’s attributes and abilities to ensure an authentic and complete experience. You can also personalise your team, create a custom game and play FIFA in 4K Ultra HD or full HD with HDR on PlayStation 4 Pro, Xbox One X, Xbox One, Nintendo Switch, Windows PC, and mobile devices. All of these new features are sure to excite the soccer community. A 360-degree view of the game also lets you admire the goal-line technology, which enables the most advanced marking and goalkeeping presented in video games. Whether you are a goalkeeper, defender, midfielder or striker, you’ll be the best you’ve ever been at your position thanks to goal-line technology. “The goal-line technology in FIFA 22 delivers more precise goalkeeping,” said Jan Jongkind, FIFA executive producer. “Whether you’re a goalkeeper, defender, midfielder or striker, you’ll be able to feel the difference.”
